Invites you to our March 2011 meeting

Mr Pino Migliorino

Pino Migliorino is the new Chairperson of the Federation of Ethnic Communities Councils of Australia bringing over 30 years involvement with and expertise in immigration and multicultural affairs.

Professionally, Pino leads Cultural Perspectives and CIRCA Research and is a recognised expert in researching and communicating with diverse cultural and linguistic audiences. This role involved managing over 80 large government and private sector advertising and communications campaigns as well as numerous multilingual research projects, and policy specific consultancies.

Pino retains a strong health and ageing focus in his professional practice and was engaged to develop a framework for cultural competency in health communications for the National Health and Medical Research Council. This consultancy is typical of many other consultancy projects undertaken requiring a strong intellectual capacity, an empathy with people from diverse backgrounds and a capacity to work with community structures and stakeholders.

Prior to entering the private sector Pino held a number of important sectoral positions including Principal Policy Officer, NSW Ethnic Affairs Commission, NSW Regional Co-ordinator, Office of Multicultural Affairs, and Executive Officer, Ethnic Communities Council of NSW.

Outside his employment profile, Pino has over two decades of involvement in community affairs including welfare, ethnic affairs, the arts and the Italian community. This personal and professional experience, provide Pino with a unique perspective in the area of Communicating and dealing with and understanding ethnic communities in Australia.

Pino has been widely published in the multicultural area, has a BA from the University of Sydney, a Diploma of Education from the Sydney Institute of Education, is a Qualified Practicing Market Researcher and a member of the Public Relations Institute of Australia.
